June 2019 – Some Representors question the legality of failing to present the true evidence regarding this new settlement vehicle during the Examination stages and hearings. They question the sudden attempted removal and dissolution which had taken place saying this is not a substitution for presenting legally robust, justifiable and accountable evidence. Some representors send in views via their written statements that ALL evidence of alternatives must be included for the Plan to be legally sound. They argue that the new settlement must therefore be included.

21 June 2019 –NHDC Planning Officer Nigel Smith sends letters to these specific representors demanding that they retract those parts of their statements relating to the legality of the new settlement, by 1 July 2019. Smith demands redactions from at least three representors whose Hearing Statements question the presence of THE NEW GARDEN CITY COMPANY and new settlement.

Since the ATLAS report had been paid for by Council with public funds, and THE NEW GARDEN CITY COMPANY had been incorporated by Chief Planner, neither were at conceptual stage only. THE NEW GARDEN CITY had become a legal entity the moment it was incorporated. All other proposed sites in the Plan, had neither been incorporated nor had commissioned studies performed on them for an entire year, nor did any receive their own report; with the exception of the new garden city, new settlement option.
